Personal Mission and Bio

My mission is to partner with you and help you live your vision everyday of your life!

Bernell K. Ingram is a professional coach, corporate trainer, language and intercultural coach, author, speaker, teacher and president of Visions International, LLC, a professional coaching practice partnering with global corporations, global executives, entrepreneurs, professionals, non-profit and Christian organizations. Bernell helps clients become the person their vision requires by adding strategy to their passion and exercising best practices of communicating and relating in an intercultural environment.

Bernell embraces her client's vision as her own and offers proactive services customized to fit their needs. Bernell draws from her experience in intercultural relations, business development, entrepreneurship, strategic planning and non-profit and ministry program development to lead clients from discovery to living their vision. Clients gain a greater awareness of their who, what, why and how which creates a life of wholeness, confidence, contentment, purpose and service. Clients become greater leaders and stewards of their vision and resources by implementing strategic plans to see their Vision Made Real™ in their life, business, career, family, or ministry.

Bernell authored "The Visionary's Guide to Small Business Development". She is a member at Water of Life Christian Church and has served in leadership for over eight years. Bernell has traversed and transcended denominational and cultural lines to equip church leaders, lay people and Christian business owners in marketplace ministry and strategic planning for their life, ministry and business. Bernell resides in Greenville, South Carolina with her husband and friend, Curtis.

"Every great work, every great achievement, has been manifested through the steadfast holding of a vision. A vision gives one direction, insight into the future, motivation, and a reason for being." -
